EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE

Thanks to a generous grant of €50,000 from the European Union's Erasmus+ program, the Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies and the Protestant Theological University (PThU) have extended their ongoing collaboration.

The grant will enable faculty and student-exchange programs between the two institutions and was confirmed with a festive signing ceremony in the presence of the Netherlands Ambassador Mr. Gilles Beschoor-Plug; Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies president Prof. Doron Bar; Schechter dean Dr. Tamar Kadari;

PThU assistant professor of Semitics and Jewish Studies Dr. Lieve Teugels; PThU international officer Dr. Albert Nijboer; and other distinguished guests. (Courtesy)
